Detectives Make Arrest in Brewerton Subway Robbery

Town of Cicero, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that Sheriff's Detectives have charged a Town of Onondaga man in connection with the robbery of a Subway restaurant that occurred in November.

After an extensive investigation into the November 12th, 2015 robbery of the Subway restaurant located 5500 Bartel Road in Brewerton, Detectives assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division have charged Thomas A. Ascioti (54) of Broad Road Syracuse, with robbery in the 1st degree and criminal possession of a weapon in the 3rd degree. Detectives identified Ascioti as the suspect observed on the restaurant's security camera entering the restaurant and brandishing what appeared to be a black handgun at the employee while demanding money from the cash register.

Detectives report that at the time of the robbery, while Ascioti was attempting to flee from the restaurant, a struggle ensued between him and the employee, forcing Ascioti to drop the proceeds before getting away.

Ascioti was arraigned in the Town of Cicero Court before Judge Bruffett, who remanded him to the Justice Center in lieu of bail set at $50,000 cash, $100,000 bond.
