Deputies Continue to Investigate Fatal Crash

Town of Onondaga, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office continues to investigate a single car crash that claimed the life of a Tully man last evening.

On Sunday evening, at approximately 8:08 pm, Sheriff's Deputies responded to the southbound lanes of Interstate 81 near the Route 11/Nedrow exit, for a reported crash involving a Chevrolet Silverado pickup truck that struck a guiderail and rolled over several times. Deputies' investigating the crash identified the driver as 29 year old Douglas Ayers of Route 80 Tully, who was later pronounced dead at Upstate University Hospital.

A section of Interstate 81 south, between Brighton Ave and Rt. 11, was closed for several hours while the Sheriff's Accident Investigation Team processes the scene. The cause of the crash continues to remain under investigation.
