Town of Clay Target Store to Host Annual “Heroes & Helpers”

Town of Clay, New York – On Saturday, December 10th, 2016, Forty-three students from the Baldwinsville, Liverpool, North Syracuse and the Phoenix School District (grades 2-5), will participate in the annual “Heroes & Helpers” event at the Target Store, located on Route 31 in the Town of Clay.

The 8th annual event sponsored by Target, the Onondaga County Sheriff's Police Association along with the Deputy Sheriff Benevolent Association, the Village of Phoenix Police Department and the Moyers Corners Fire Department, is geared to help in-need children enjoy the Christmas season and build a relationship with the public safety community. With over $4,000 raised, each child will receive a gift card to shop at the popular department store while enjoying holiday treats donated by Dunkin Donuts, Starbucks, the Price Chopper grocery store and the Panera Bread restaurant. Each child will partner-up with a public safety member who has volunteered their time to go on the shopping spree, which will begin at 9:00 am and continue until 11:30 am.

Additionally, the following businesses also contributed to this event, Thomas J. Pirro Funeral Home, H.P. Mile, Inc. of Syracuse, Davidson Ford of Clay, the Medicine Place in Phoenix, Bombadil's Tavern in Phoenix, J & J Collision in Phoenix, RFH's Hide-A-Way in Phoenix, Duskee's Sports Bar & Grill in Phoenix, Phoenix Rising and Syracuse Picturebooth of Syracuse.
