Liverpool Man Arrested for Allegedly Taking Pictures in Woman's Restroom

Town of Clay, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that a Liverpool man has been charged after allegedly taking pictures in a woman's restroom at his place of employment.

Sheriff's Deputies report that on August 26th, at approximately 1:00 a.m., Garrett Monds (26) of Norstar Blvd, Liverpool, was working at the Rite Aid Warehouse located on Henry Clay Blvd when he entered the woman's restroom while another employee was occupying one of the stalls. Monds is accused of allegedly taking pictures of the female employee from an adjoining stall. The victim reported the incident to management, who notified deputies.

Deputies charged Monds on Tuesday evening with the felony of unlawful surveillance in the 2nd degree. He is scheduled to appear in the Town of Clay Court on October 10th. Monds had been previously charged for a similar incident on May 1st while at the Onondaga Community College where he was enrolled as a student at the time.
