Off Duty Sheriff's Deputy Charged after Leaving the Scene of Accident

Village of Tully, New York- The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that a Police Department Deputy has been charged with leaving the scene of a property damage auto accident that occurred while off duty Friday evening in the Village of Tully.

On October 6th, at approximately 7:05 pm, deputies responded to a reported property damage hit and run accident on Elm Street involving a vehicle traveling eastbound that side swiped another vehicle and left the scene. While investigating the incident, deputies learned of a second accident in close proximity involving the same vehicle, which had struck a mailbox. Deputies located the vehicle and driver at the second scene where they discovered the operator was an off-duty deputy.

The driver was identified as Kevin Drumm (34) of Lafayette, a Police Deputy with the Sheriff's Office since 2008. He was charged with leaving the scene of a property damage auto accident and has been suspended without pay per New York State Civil Service requirements. An internal investigation is ongoing.
