Man with Gun Taken into Custody By Sheriff's Swat Team.

Town of Pompey, New York- The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that Sheriff's Deputies and Members of the Onondaga County Sheriff's Office Swat Team responded to the area of Berwyn Road and Chase Road for a report of a man with a gun.

This afternoon, at approximately 2:15 PM, a man with a gun was reported to the 911 Center in the area of Berwyn Road and Chase Road. Sheriff's Deputies, as well as members of the State Police, responded to the area. When police arrived, they observed a male carrying a handgun. A perimeter was set up in the area to keep local residents safe. Sheriff's Deputies attempted to speak with the male but were unable to get the male to surrender his weapon. The Sheriff's Swat Team and Negotiators were activated and responded to the area.

The negotiators spoke with the male subject trying to convince him to surrender his weapon. At approximately 6:00 PM, through negotiations and the swift actions of Members of the Swat Team, the male was disarmed and taken into custody without incident.

The male subject was not injured nor was any member of the Sheriff's Office. Investigators are continuing with their investigation.
