Juvenile Charged In Connection With Mattydale House Fire

Town of Salina, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that Sheriff's Detectives have charged a 15-year-old juvenile in connection with the residential house fire that occurred Tuesday morning in the town of Salina.

A fire Tuesday morning that caused damage to a second floor bedroom at 323 Brookfield Road in Mattydale was determined by Onondaga County Fire Investigators to be an act of arson. Deputies investigating the fire learned that a 15-year-old residing at the residence had intentionally set the fire after a domestic dispute. The juvenile fled from the scene prior to Deputies arriving but was located a short time later in the City of Syracuse by Sheriff's Detectives.

The juvenile was charged with Arson in the 2nd degree and is currently being held at the Hillbrook Juvenile Detention Center.
