Detectives Arrest Trio in Armed Robbery

Town of Salina, New York-The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that detectives have charged three people in connection with Sunday evenings armed robbery of a Dunkin Donuts in the Town of Salina.

Sheriff's Detectives working with State Police Investigators, identified the three suspects involved in Sunday evenings armed robbery of the Dunkin Donuts, which occurred inside the Express Mart at 2723 Brewerton Road. All three suspects are juveniles and are only being identified by their age as two 15 year old males and an 11 year old male, all from Syracuse.

The three juveniles working together are accused of robbing the Dunkin Donuts at gun point and fleeing with an undisclosed amount of money. Three were last seen getting into a white colored Chevrolet Malibu vehicle, which was reported stolen and later discovered abandoned by the Syracuse Police Department on Culbert Street in the city of Syracuse.

Detectives charged all three juveniles with robbery in the 1st degree and criminal use of a firearm. The two 15 year olds were arraigned in Centralized Arraignment Court, with one receiving $50,000 cash/bond and the other receiving $20,000 cash/bond. The 11 year old was arraigned in Onondaga County Family Court and was denied bail. All three were remanded to Hillbrook Juvenile Detention Center.
