Applicants for NYS Pistol Licenses

There are three (3) types of handgun licenses one can apply for as described in section 400.00 of the New York State Penal Law. Except under special circumstances, the issuance of these licenses is restricted to:

1. Carry Concealed: Without regard to employment or place of possession by any person when “Proper Cause” exists for the issuance thereof or to carry with listed restrictions.
2. Possess on Premise: Have and possess in dwelling by a homeowner ONLY or have and possess in one place of business by a merchant or storekeeper ONLY.
3. Carry Concealed/Employment: with regard to employment.

Applicants applying for a Carry Concealed pistol license are required to complete the “proper Cause” forms for the issuance of this permit. NO applicant will be issued an unrestricted license unless he/she is able to demonstrate a special need for the issuance thereof.

If an applicant will pursue a pistol license for the purposes of hunting, target shooting, competition, hiking, camping, etc., a SPORTSMAN restriction will be applied to the pistol license.

Applicants who desire a license for home/business ONLY would be advised to apply for a POSSESS ON PREMISE. This is not a carry license and restricts the possession of the handgun(s) to the dwelling address or place of business address listed on the application. If this address should change, the application process will begin again with all fees applicable.

Applicants wanting to carry concealed for their jobs must have a letter from their employer stating that they require the individual to carry during the performance of his/her duties. The restrictions on the license will appear as EMPLOYMENT, SECURITY or BUSINESS. No pistol license application will be accepted until he/she has successfully completed a handgun safety course from one of the listed certified instructors and can furnish this office with the certificate that is awarded upon completion.

Basic Handgun Safety Course

A basic handgun safety course is required in Onondaga County for first time Pistol license holders

Only a certificate issued by any of the Certified Instructors will be accepted.

The Handgun Safety Course Certificate is valid for 3 years from date of issuance.

See the most recent Certified Instructors List on line.

Proper Cause” for a “Carry Concealed” Pistol License

The New York State Legislature restricts the types of pistol licenses that the court may issue to NYS Pistol License Holders. Under NYS Penal Law Section 400.00 (1):

1. Possession in a dwelling by a householder
2. Possession in a place of business by a merchant or storekeeper
3. Have and carry concealed while employed as a messenger of a banking institution
4. Have and carry concealed by an employee while on duty in a correctional facility
5. Have and carry concealed, without regard to employment or place of possession, by any person when proper cause exists for the issuance thereof.

If your application seeks what is popularly known as a “have and carry concealed” without limitation pistol license, the New York State Legislature authorizes the court to approve it only where it meets the “proper cause” standard. Appellate court decisions binding upon the pistol licensing officer define “proper cause” for the issuance of a “have and carry concealed” without limitation pistol license as grounds which demonstrate “a special need for self-protection distinguishable from that of the general community or a person engaged in the same profession. (Matter of Kaplan vs. Branton, 249 AD2d199 (1st Dept. 1998).

Pistol license applications should be aware that if you apply for a pistol license for a particular purpose, then it will be limited to that purpose. Also, if you desire a licensed for self-protection you would be advised to apply for an on-premise license. This is not a carry license and restricts the possession of the handgun to the dwelling or place of business listed in the application. No application will be issued an unrestricted carry permit unless he/she is able to demonstrate a special need for the issuance thereof. Self-protection is not a sufficient need for the issuance of a carry concealed license.

A statement of grounds which meet the test of “proper cause”, i.e. “a special need for self-protection distinguishable from that of the general community or of persons engaged in the same profession”, is necessary in order for the licensing officer to apply the law as enacted by the Legislature and interpreted by the higher Courts. As there is limited space available on the application form for a statement of “proper cause”, an “Optional Statement” form has been provided with this information sheet should you wish to supplement your application beyond the form.

Optional Supplement to Application for the Issuance of a "Have & Carry Concealed" without Limitation Pistol License

Please state in detail the "proper cause" for issuance of a pistol license which authorizes you to carry a concealed pistol on your person twenty-four hours a day without limitation and then state why the grounds set forth in that statement constitute "a special need for protections distinguishable from that of the general community and person engaged in the same conduct, profession or business" referred to in section one of above
