Four People Face Drug Charges

Town of Clay, New York- The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that four people face drug charges after marijuana and narcotics are discovered in a Town of Clay home.

On Wednesday evening detectives assigned to the Sheriff's Office Special Investigations Unit executed a search warrant at 8474 Bubbling Springs Drive in the Town of Clay, following a several week long investigation into drug activity.

Subsequent search of the house by detectives resulted in the recovery of 12.5 pounds of marijuana, $16,500 in U.S. currency, a quantity of Suboxone and various drug paraphernalia. Upon further investigation, detectives also discovered an additional 12 pounds of marijuana in a nearby storage unit. Detectives charged the following;

- Justin Campolito (29) of 8474 Bubbling Springs Drive, with criminal possession of marijuana in the 1st degree and unlawful possession of marijuana.
- Cameron Chrisjohn (20) of 8474 Bubbling Springs Drive, with criminal possession of marijuana in the 5th degree and unlawful possession of marijuana.
- Marie Napolitano (26) of 8474 Bubbling Springs Drive, with criminal possession of a controlled substance in the 7th degree.
- Lori Ann Lamoy (42) of Willumae Drive Syracuse, with criminal possession of marijuana in the 5th degree and unlawful possession of marijuana.

Campolito was arraigned yesterday in Centralized Court and held in the Justice Center on bail set at $15,000 cash $30,000 bond. He has since bonded out of the Justice Center.

Chrisjohn, Napolitano and Lamoy were all released on an appearance tickets and are scheduled to appear in the Town of Clay Court next month.
