Wanted Felon Apprehended after Fleeing from Police

Town of Cicero, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office reports that a wanted felon is in custody after fleeing from police Thursday evening in the Town of Cicero.

On June 24th, at approximately 11:00 P.M., a Town of Cicero Police Officer conducting an investigation into a harassment complaint at the Bayshore Apartment located at 9445 Chalkstone Course, observed a wanted male walking in the complex. When the officer approached the male to take him into custody, the male took off running into a nearby wooded area. With the assistance from the Sheriff's Office Air 1 helicopter, the flight crew utilized its infrared camera system to locate the male, who was hiding in a sewage tunnel on Bartel Road near Interstate 81. At the same, a Sheriff's Office K9 had tracked the male to the same sewage tunnel. The male complied with the K9 handler's commands to surrender at which time the male was taken into custody without further incident.

The male, identified as Nathan Johnson (20) of Liverpool, was arrested on a felony arrest warrant for the charges of grand larceny in the 4th degree, coercion in the 3rd degree and criminal contempt in the 2nd degree. Johnson is accused of stealing multiple credit cards from an unoccupied vehicle in the parking lot of the Target Store on Brewerton Road in Cicero last month.

Johnson was arraigned on Friday morning and is currently being held in the Justice Center on bail set at $5,000 cash/$15,000 bond.
