Deputies Investigate House Fire in Town of Clay

Town of Clay, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office is currently investigating a residential fire in the Town of Clay.

At approximately 9:23 A.M. this morning, Sheriff's Deputies along with firefighters from the Moyer Corners Fire Department and surrounding districts responded to a reported house fire at 3498 Bonstead Road between Maider Road and Jackson Road. Upon the arrival of deputies, they discovered heavy smoke and flames coming from the residence. Deputies investigating the fire report that the home was occupied by three family members when the fire was discovered and were all able to escape unharmed.

It took firefighters approximately 70 minutes to extinguish the fire, which caused extensive damage to the home. The American Red Cross is currently working on relocating occupants, while Onondaga County Fire Investigators look into the cause of the fire.
