Deputies Investigating Fatal Crash in the Town of Clay

Town of Clay, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office is currently investigating a fatal crash involving a single vehicle that rolled over on Henry Clay Blvd.

This evening at approximately 7:35 P.M., sheriff's deputies along with rescue personnel responded to Henry Clay Blvd between Waterhouse Road and Wetzel Road for a reported crash involving a vehicle that rolled over several times. Deputies investigating the crash have confirmed that one occupant inside the vehicle has died. Four other occupants, one of which had to be extricated from the vehicle, were all transported to Upstate University Hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

The investigation is active and ongoing at this time. Henry Clay Blvd between Waterhouse Road and Wetzel is currently closed to all traffic while members of the Sheriff's Office Accident Investigation Team process the scene.

Additional information will be released as it becomes available.
