Deputies Investigating Fatal House Fire in the Town of Onondaga

Town of Clay, New York – The Onondaga County Sheriff's Office is currently investigating a residential fire in the Town of Onondaga that has claimed the life of one person.

At approximately 1:13 P.M. this afternoon, Sheriff's Deputies along with firefighters from the Taunton, Solvay, Fairmount and Lakeside Fire Departments responded to a reported house fire at 4040 Howlett Hill Road between Copperfield Road and Prairieview Drive in the Town of Onondaga. Upon the arrival of first responders, they discovered heavy smoke and flames coming from the residence. Firefighters entered the home where they quickly extinguished the fire and discovered an adult female deceased on the first floor of the two-story home.

Detectives from the Criminal Investigations Division along with Onondaga County Fire Investigators continue to investigate the fire to determine the cause and origin. The name of the deceased woman is being held at this time pending next of kin notification.
